PARAMEDIC OR EMT OF THE YEAR

This award is given annually to the one individual who best exemplifies the characteristics of a paramedic and who has an outstanding record of EMS service achievements. These characteristics encompass all aspects of loyalty, productivity, dedicated, and professional service.

The candidate should be the epitome of a paramedic or EMT. We are looking for the candidate that is a true community leader; the person who is involved in all the right activities for all the right reasons. This is not an award for heroism. It is meant to honor an individual who has given selfishly of him or herself to the local community, the local EMS service and the EMS service as a whole. The nominee must be of the following criteria:

DEDICATION -The Individual has demonstrated the highest degree of dedication and participation to activities within his/her EMS department Including training, EMS response, public education and other EMS department activities.

LOYALTY – The individual has demonstrated an allegiance to his/her EMS department and to its EMS personnel and officers. Is a team player and supports others efforts to achieve the goal of the EMS service, supports his/her EMS department policies, engaging only in constructive criticism that will lead to the improvements of the department.

PRODUCTIVITY – Has gone well beyond the duties of his/her EMS department position to make clearly visible improvements that have enhanced the department’s ability to treat and care for patients and to better serve the community.

PROFESSIONALISM – performs his/her EMS service duties in a manner that exemplifies the competency that all EMS personnel should strive to achieve and which reflects the highest standards of the EMS service. Regularly demonstrates the ability to lead and to follow, depending upon the circumstance.

This award will not be awarded if suitable nominees are not submitted
